Data Protection

How do we use your information?

When you buy AUBD membership through us we will collect some of your personal details. This information will be used for administering your contract and delivering the service or product you have signed up to. The information requested during the application is required to complete the membership process and forms part of your contract with us. Unless otherwise stated, the information you provide will never be used for any other purpose without your permission.

Keeping and storing your data

We will keep your data for no longer than 6 years from the time your AUBD membership ends. We will retain basic details after the 6 year period for any future association.

Submitting a review

By submitting a review you consent to us collecting some of your personal details. Reviews remain visible as long as the AUBD member's entry on AUBD is live. Any reviews submitted by postal card are entered on to the AUBD website, if you gave us permission to do so. The postal cards are held for one year after submission.

We will never give your data away or sell it to anyone.

Ensuring the accuracy of your details that we hold

The accuracy of your information is important to us. We will endeavour to ensure that we hold accurate details about you. If your details change, please let us know so that we can update our records. To do this you can write to us at our registered office, email us at info@aubd.co.uk or call us on 0800 011 4643.
